

Welcome to our Judicial System Website!

On behalf of the Judiciary of Rwanda, I warmly welcome you to this website which is intended to form a backbone for information sharing on the court system. This website provides information on the composition, functions and mandate of the judicial system as well as information on the courts' General Secretariat and departments.

The website is also intended to showcase the activities and outputs of the Judiciary as it strives to ensure that all our citizen have access to improved judicial services.

As you visit the website for case information, court calendars, forms, reports, or any of the wide range of resources available here, I hope you will notice the continued improvements resulting from the reforms of the judicial system in Rwanda and be reminded of its primary mission, which is to provide an efficient, fair and impartial forum for the resolution of disputes.

I wish you an educative and informative interaction with the court system as we work to establish and maintain an independent and efficient system for administering justice for all, promoting public awareness of the law and procedures for access to justice. As always, we welcome hearing from you if you have any suggestions for improvements or concerns about the web site. Please contact us at: infos@judiciary.gov.rw.
